

Functions of a Hospital

Auxiliary Sets Workshop

"Behind the Scenes" is the theme of the third Annual Workshop to be conducted by the Auxiliary to the Harbor General Hospital on Thursday, March 9, from 9 to 3 p.m. in the hospital auditorium, 1000 West Carson St.

The general public is invited to attend the Workshop, which is designed to explore hospital functions for persons interested in hospital careers in employment as well as the volunteer level.

Mrs. William C. Hoag, 29322 South Golden Meadow Drive, president of the volunteer auxiliary, will preside during the day.

Hospital staff members, from various departments in the hospital, will talk on the functions of their departments after which there will be buzz sessions and tours of the facility.

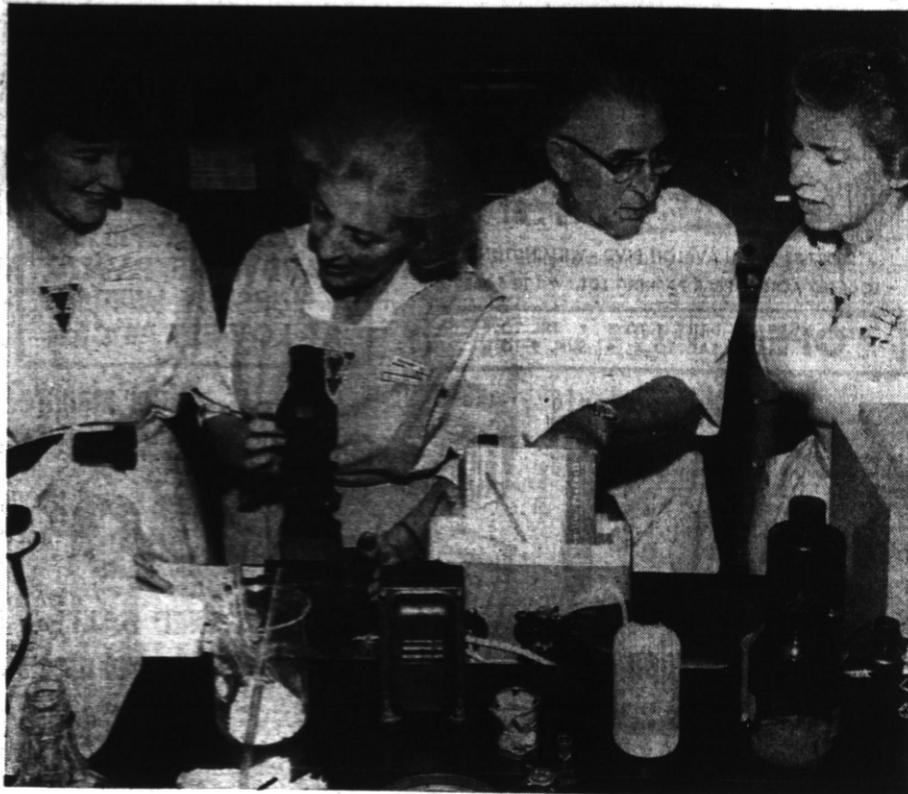

A no-host luncheon will be served in the foyer of the auditorium at 12:30 p.m.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. and the session will be opened at 9:30 a.m. by a welcome address by Leslie R. Smith, hospital administrator.

Other speakers and their subjects are "Behind the Scenes in the Volunteer Office," Mrs. Marguerite Broen McAllister, chief of patient programs; "Hospitals — Organism That Meets Society's Needs," Edward J. Foley, personnel officer.

Others are "Biomedical Engineering," James G. Lewis, chief clinical laboratory technologist; "What's Cooking," Miss Elizabeth Starr, chief dietitian; and "What's Happening in the Cast Room," Mrs. Doris Austin, senior orthopedic technician.

Areas, where visitors will not be permitted because of certain types of patient care, will be shown in a brief film and there will be picture setups in the laboratory illustrating the old and modern procedures.

Behind The Scenes

The functions of a hospital will be presented to the public in speech and pictures tomorrow when the Harbor General Hospital Auxiliary sponsors its third annual Workshop at the hospital. Persons interested in careers or volunteer work will be shown the "behind the scenes" functioning of the facility. Mrs. L. David Heggie, left, first vice president, is being shown the old method of taking the chemical content of the blood by Mrs. Joseph Jay, past president and a former lab technician, as William Forgey, senior chemical technologist, shows the new machine to Mrs. William Hoag, auxiliary president.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MARCH 8, 1967

B-1

Fashion Musicale March 11 Benefits School of Music

Today's fashions and yesterday's music will be programmed when friends of the School Music, Immaculate Heart College stage a benefit luncheon, "Harmony in Fashions" at the Elks Club, Long Beach, Saturday, March 11, at 12 noon.

The fashion show-musical will be a joint benefit for the Immaculate Heart College Madrigal Singers of Los Angeles and the Western High School A Cappella Choir of Anaheim.

For more information or reservations write Mrs. Charles Hoyt, 3321 Cortese Drive, Los Alamitos, Calif.

To Select Miss Torrance

Jaycettes Add Royal Touches to Pageant

Torrance Jaycettes are adding a flare of the spectacular to the Miss Torrance Pageant to be held here April 1 when a local beauty will be selected to reign as "Miss Torrance 1967" and to be this city's entrant in the national Miss America contest.

This year's Queen will wear the royal robe of red velvet to be made by Jaycettes Mrs. William Faulks and Mrs. Ron Davis.

This will be the traditional robe to be used in years to come.

The entire stage setting, backdrop and stage effects are being created under the direction of Mrs. John Corsaut with the backdrop painted in Torrance scenes. Mrs. Richard Spaan is in charge of securing palms and other plants for the stage and Mrs. Marty Lewis is securing the throne chair.

Jaycettes will serve as hostesses to the girls during the pageant and will assist with tickets and programs on the night of the pageant.

On Saturday March 11, a get-acquainted coffee for the contestants will be given by the Jaycettes at La Casitas in Fashion Square at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Ron Simkin and Mrs. Jerry Markwell are in charge of arrangements for the coffee.

Application deadline for contestants for the pageant has been set as March 10.

Plan Coffee For Contestants

Next Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. in La Casita, Fashion Square, Torrance Jaycettes will stage a get-acquainted coffee for contestants in the Miss Torrance pageant. From left, Mrs. Leon Taylor goes over plans with Mmes. Ronald Davis and Mrs. James Hussey, co-chairmen, while at right, Miss Torrance of 1966, Susan Foster, is served refreshments by Mrs. Harold Lindborg, Jaycette president.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Torrance Woman's Club

Honors Past Prexys, Hosts AFS Students

Nostalgia and international gaiety sparked the luncheon meeting of the Torrance Woman's Club last Wednesday afternoon when the club honored its past presidents and were entertained by American Field Service students here, attending school.

Spring bouquets and international flags decorated the luncheon tables.

Mrs. H. Ted Olson, president, welcomed and introduced the past presidents. They were Mmes. A. W. Johnson, 1934-36; A. H. Silligo, 1939-40; E. A. Miles, 1940-41; C. B. Mitchell, 1941-43; James Wilkes, 1947-49; Dean L. Sears, 1950; B. T. Whitney, 1950-51; A. F. R. Ewalt, 1952-53; H. R. Richards, 1954-55.

Others were Mmes. R. E. Moffitt, 1957-58; Don B. Wolf, 1958-59; Roy J. Apsey, 1960-61; Lee Stamps, 1961-62; J. P. Bay, 1962-63; J. G. Louvier, 1963-64; Andrew Acampora, 1964-65; H. F. Heinlein, 1965-66; G. C. Van Deventer, 1965-66; and Chris Jones, 1966-67.

Mrs. Olsen then presented Mrs. Jack Hughes, speech chairman for the Torrance Chapter of American Field Service. Club members were entertained with descriptions of their homelands and their impressions of the United States given by Daniel Darre from Argentina, attending Torrance High; Leo de Bever, from The Netherlands attending South High; Seida Usternall of Turkey, student at West High; and Elizabeth McClery of Scotland, a North High student.

Mrs. J. A. Tweedy, International Hostess, served as chairman for the event. She was assisted by Mmes. Richard Dorothy, A. S. Moore, W. C. Moyer, C. L. Porter, John C. Warnock, Jr., Morton E. Diener and William Mossman.

Gifts for Convalescent Home Patients

Visiting the Baycest and Earlwood Convalescent Homes in Torrance this week, Junior Woman's Club members will present 109 gift packages containing soap dishes, soaps and perfume. The gaily wrapped packages were completed at workshops held last week. Mrs. Wayne Lynch, chairman of the project, is shown packing a kit, Mrs. Jerry Kreutz, wraps a package, and Mrs. Milton Gregory, puts items in a bag. Others assisting were Mmes. Roland Davenport, Larry Smith, Bruce Wilkinson, Don McKenzie, Archie Kozak, Richard Rankin, Graydon Smart and Michael Wedemeyer.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Perky Spring Bonnets

The fun of choosing a gay new Easter bonnet is being enjoyed by these Alpha Chi Omega alumnae as they prepare for their annual Hat Tea to be held Saturday. From the left, Mrs. Dale Vandenberg, president, admires a new hat in the mirror, while Mrs. Ralph Brubaker, treasurer, tries to choose a purse, and Mrs. John Thayer, invitation chairman, is fascinated by two spring creations.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae

Announce Benefit Tea

South Bay Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae announces its third annual Hat Tea to be held Saturday, March 11, at the home of Mrs. Rex S. Hungerford, 3924 Via Pavilion, Palos Verdes Estates.

Alpha Chis and their guests will attend the tea from 1 until 4 p.m., stated Mrs. Daryl Creighton, general chairman.

Others assisting with the benefit are Mrs. John E. Thayer, invitations chairman; Mrs. F. Edward Chappeler, refreshments; and Mrs. Robert K. Stanford, hat chairman.

The tea serves as an excellent opportunity for the women of the South Bay to choose their Easter bonnets as well as spring and summer shift dresses and straw handbags.

Alpha Chi Omegas presiding at the refreshment table during the tea hours will be Mrs. Dale Vandenberg, president; Mrs. Arthur Dlott and Mrs. Barry Smith, vice presidents; and Mrs. Ralph Brubaker, treasurer. Others assisting will be Mrs. Fred Spurgeon and Mrs. Walter E. Hale.

All proceeds from the Hat Tea will go to continue Alpha Chi Omega's philanthropic work locally in the field of cerebral palsy.